*Seven13 Films and Rider University Present Youth Symposium with Trenton Mayoral Candidates
Thursday, April 19, 6:30 p.m.*

Alicia Nieves of CBS 3's Eyewitness News to Moderate Youth Symposium at Rider University After Special Screening of Documentary 'Generation Change'

Seven13 Films and Rider University will present a youth symposium with Trenton Mayoral candidates and moderated by Alicia Nieves of CBS 3's Eyewitness News. Mayoral candidates in attendance will be Darren Green, Reed Gusclora, Annette Horton-Lartigue, Paul Perez and Walker Worthy Jr. The public event will take place on Thursday, April 19, 2018 at 6:30 p.m. at Rider University. Attendees must register in advance through Eventbrite.com.

The symposium will feature today's youth, who will ask the panel of mayoral candidate's question on how they would improve the social challenges of Trenton. The youths selected to ask the questions will be from local schools and youth organizations. Each candidate will have limited time to answer each question.

Prior to the youth symposium, seven13 Films will be screening an episode of their docuseries Generation Change and the Rider University students will be screening their featurette Generation Change: It Starts with Us.
